

INTRODUCTION

As Group Managing Director, the foundation of SWGR ' Modern Slavery Policy' is based on the Company's commitment to find practical, meaningful and culturally appropriate responses to support the elimination of such labour practices. It has been formulated in consideration with the acts and It therefore endorses the need for appropriate initiatives to progressively eliminate these abuses.

SWGR has a zero-tolerance approach to Modern slavery and is committed to preventing acts of slavery and human trafficking from both its business and supply chain, and imposes those same high standards on its contractors, suppliers and other business partners.

This statement is made pursuant to section 5.54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and sets out the steps that SWGR has taken and is continuing to take to ensure that modern slavery or human trafficking is not taking place within our business or supply chain.

Modern slavery encompasses slavery, servitude, human trafficking and forced labour. SWGR has a zero-tolerance approach to any form of modern slavery. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity and transparency in all business dealings, and to putting effective systems and controls in place to safeguard against any form of modern slavery taking place within the business or supply chain.

This policy applies to all persons working for us on our behalf in any capacity, including employees at all levels, directors, senior management, contracts supervisors, procurement personnel, office staff, site operatives, agency workers, seconded workers, volunteers, interns, contractors, external consultants, third party representatives and business partners.

This policy does not form part of any employees' contract of employment and we may amend it any time. Any amendments to this policy will be communicated to all staff working for the business.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE POLICY

The Directors of SWGR have overall responsibility for ensuring this policy complies with legal and ethical obligations, and that all under our control comply with it. The business unit leads have primary and day to day responsibility for implementing this policy, monitoring it's use and effectiveness, dealing with any queries about it, and auditing internal control systems and procedures to ensure they are effective in countering modern slavery.

Management at all levels are responsible for ensuring those representing them understand and comply with this policy and are given adequate and regular training on it and the issue of modern slavery in supply chains.
